HELPING TO MAKE WATER CONSERVATION A CALIFORNIA WAY OF LIFE

State Drought Emergency Declared Over

The State of California lifted drought penalties, but Californians are required to continue managing water wisely. Conservation is one of the many tools used to manage water resources. Some water use restrictions remain in place under the most recent State direction.

Even/Odd Watering Days No Longer Apply

Water use restrictions required during the drought are now a California way of life. Within the City of Stockton, even and odd day watering days no longer apply. Watering is allowed any day of the week, except between 11:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m., between May 1 - November 1.

Drought Surcharge Applies During Recovery

The drought surcharge will remain in place to maintain operations of the City's water operation because of ongoing conservation requirements.
